| 4/30/2024 | Recorded PD Pop: ~Part 4 of a 4-Part MTSS Series: C.L.I.M.B.'ing Out of the Suspension Cycle (K-5) - Presented by Jessica Harris
Out-of-school suspensions contribute to the school-to-prison pipeline, and our students need to remain at school now more than ever. Learn about the C.L.I.M.B. program at Mayflower Mill developed by a principal and a teacher as a solution to minimize out-of-school suspensions. The C.L.I.M.B. program provides intensive social and emotional interventions, utilizes trauma-responsive approaches and offers in-school regulation opportunities to Tier 2 and Tier 3 students all while heavily involving parents and classroom teachers. We can support teachers AND hold kids accountable while making sure they are safe, loved, and at school learning. This recording will be sent to you at 7:30 AM on April 30th to view at your convenience. | $50 |

| 5/1/2024 | ~Notebook Circuits: Make-it, Take-it Kits! (5-8) - Available to WVEC Title 4 Consortium Members Only
Join the Purdue Science Outreach team for Notebook Circuit experiments that will introduce you to the concepts of charge, electrical energy and electric current, using paper models and magnetic white boards. You will physically see what a simple circuit looks like and how it works, and how more complex circuits are different. You will also be able to measure voltage and current with a multimeter, to learn about energy transformations occurring in the examples of the different kinds of circuits you construct. Teachers will walk away with sets of materials for your class. Leave the workshop with a classroom set of materials! This is available to WVEC Title 4 Consortium Members Only! Registration is limited to the first 30 registrants! *This event is held at Purdue University. | Free |
| 5/1/2024 | *PD Pop: Building Comprehension Through Think Alouds (PreK-8) - Presented by Molly Ness
Purposeful readers think about their own reading as they navigate through a text. Join this workshop to learn how to build students' comprehension and metacognition. We will focus on think alouds, and learn an easy-to-implement three-step planning process. Make the most of your read alouds by thinking big so your students will internalize reading strategies! This live session will be recorded and shared with all registrants afterwards. | $50 |
| 5/2/2024 | *PD Pop: Summer Fun: Focusing on Families! (K-5) - Presented by Melissa Fresch
As much as we look forward to summer break and relaxing, we also know how important it is to keep that connection with our multilingual families. During this session we'll talk about some ways we support our ML students and families over the summer break. At my school we've made this a focus for the past couple of years and have had really great results and feedback from our multilingual families. We're focused on building that connection and also on continuing the learning through the summer! You'll leave this session with tons of ideas and resources! This live session will be recorded and shared with all registrants afterward. | $50 |
| 5/2/2024 | *Canva Features That Are Game-Changers for You and Your Multilingual Learners (K-12) - Presented by Courtney Morgan
The incredible digital creation platform Canva is ever-evolving and adding new features. Some of the latest will knock your socks off with how easy they make translation, voiceover, presentation recording, and interactive activities for students! In this session, I'll model, then give you time to play and explore! (Recommended for educators who have some familiarity with the navigation and use of Canva, but anyone can come be inspired with new ideas!) This live session will be recorded and shared with all registrants afterwards. | $50 |
| 5/7/2024 | ~PD Pop: Google: Organize My Life! (K-12) - Presented by Kierston McKinley
Come to this session to learn hacks, tips, tricks, and so much more Google-related. We'll look at workflow skills, underrated tools, and simple tips to keep you more organized using Google tools. This live session will be recorded and shared with all registrants afterward. | $50 |
| 5/8/2024 | ~PD Pop: Coaching and Questioning: Unlocking the Mystery of Reflection (K-12) - Presented by Bridget McCormick
Coaches, Administrators, and Teacher Leaders: Based on the principles of Cognitive Coaching, we'll focus on using effective questioning to unlock the mystery of guiding others to self reflection that is meaningful, builds capacity, and encourages greater success. We will discuss what types of questions to use during interactions | $50 | to keep conversations focused on the growth of our mentees. Through strategies that lead to decision-making, reflection, and effective perceptions, we'll explore how to lead others to be self-directed individuals. This live session will be recorded and shared with all registrants afterward.
